To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Maria Peralta and I am the Community Relations Manager at Camillus House. Camillus House is a non-profit organization that provides humanitarian services to men, women and children who are poor and homeless. One of our facilities is a shelter in downtown Miami that provides daily meals and shelter to our less fortunate clients.

On July 2010 the Founders of "Lawyers to the Rescue", Spencer and Dina Aronfeld contacted us to find out how their group could give back to their community. "Lawyers to the Rescue" is a non-profit humanitarian Organization for lawyers that do charitable work in their communities. They wanted to help by serving weekly meals at our shelter and so they did. After a couple of visits they shared with us that in addition to serving meals, they wanted to organize a legal clinic that would help educate our clients in certain areas such as Basic Rights, Immigration, Child Support and Identity Theft. For almost a year, they have been coming one Saturday a month and they devote a few hours to empower our clients with useful information and legal guidance.

We hope to continue having the presence of "Lawyers to the Rescue" so our clients can benefit from the invaluable information they provide.

If you have any other questions about "Lawyers to the Rescue" please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Maria Alejandra Peralta
